conclusion

Sam Stubs' DNA was found on the murder weapon and his fingerprints were found near Captain Cornball. Stubs' and Norma Nanny's pen was identified to be the one that wrote the note found at the scene.

Captain Cornball had recently gotten out of prison. Not many people know about his though he had many different lovers and many different kids.

Now Thomas Sandstone ran away from home and had many kids from many different women as well. Who just so happened to have changed his name when he got out of prison. We believe that he changed his name to Captain Cornball. He was convicted for the murder of Peebles. Sam Stubs finance! Which gives Stubs a motive for the murder of Captain Cornball.
